Co-op Draw Winners

Extravaganza draw winners at Elk Point Co-op were Debra Kilby (above) who accepted her prize of a Nintendo system from Chris Weiss, while Karen Stafford was presented with two pairs of cross country skis by Co-op manager Rodger McLaughlin.

Santa's Anonymous deadline

The deadline for applying for Santa's Anonymous has been extended to December 22, 1990. For information or to register please phone Stephen Montgomery at 724-3800.

Attention Single Parents!
The Single Parent Association is being formed in St. Paul. The activities of the group will include a support group for single parents. This support group will provide an opportunity for single parents to meet together to discuss the frustrations and common problems of being a single parent and to share ideas about solutions to these problems. For more information contact Joan at 645-3237.

Another win for the Bullies

On December 8 the Elk Point Micro Novice team travelled to Maliga, coming home with another win, 14 to 2.

Goal scorers were Kent Bjornstad (8 goals), Adam Kleeberger (3 goals), Melvin Easthope (1 goal), Ryan Hahn (1 goal) and Curtis Croteau (1 goal).

Each member of the team has shown a tremendous amount of improvement from the start of the year. Great effort boys, and good luck in your next game.

Our apologies to Elk Point Hotel

Town approves 1991 budget

The Town of Elk Point has completed an amazing feat: their 1991 operational budget is complete, and was approved by Town Council at their December 10 meeting, a full three weeks before their goal of December 31.

This is the first time the Town's budget has been completed before the end of the previous year, and is many months ahead of the completion date in April or May which was common practice for many years. The 1990 budget was completed in the first few weeks of this year, and was felt to be a major accomplishment at that time. Setting of the mill rate and mailing of tax notices will have to wait until the usual time of near mid-year, due to the need to have school and supplementary requisitions established before that can be done.

The 1991 operational budget holds the line on the municipal portion of taxes, and uses previous surpluses for both capital and operational costs. User fees for municipally operated utilities and facilities are scheduled to stay the same.

The only unhappy note in the budget is a substantial rise in licensing fees for both pets and for businesses which operate out of homes or come in to town to provide goods or services. For the latter, this is the first increase in a decade, and will bring Elk Point's business licences more in line with those in other communities. Licences which were previously set at $25 or $50, for home-based businesses, will now cost $75, while out-of-town businesses operating in Elk Point will see their fee doubled to $150. Animal licensing fees will be $15 for a neutered dog, with proof of this procedure having been done, required, and $30 for non-neutered dogs of either sex.

Some cuts have been made in proposed purchases for various departments. A line painter, weed sprayer and additional tractor were crossed off the Public Works list, as was a costly water line break detector, however most proposed projects will be going ahead as planned. The Community Services Building Society will receive their needed funding for architectural services, with $9000 from the AMPLE grant allotted. Community Recreation and Cultural Grants will again be allotted half to the Town and half to be divided between clubs and organizations. An overall 5.7 percent increase for salaries is planned, but the previous flat rate for mileage for municipal staff will now be paid on an expense account basis.

Two major expenditures contained in the budget are the purchase of the property in the Alberta Mortgage and Housing Land Bank, and the purchase of water line piping with which to draw water from the North Saskatchewan River. AMPLE reserve funds of $125,000 will be put toward the land purchase, along with $28,800 from the Town's 1990 operating surplus. A short term loan will be obtained for the $30,000 balance, with plans to pay this off within 3 years or less. Mayor Bruce Kleeberger termed the purchase "investing in our community in a very real way."

The water line purchase is eligible for $75,000 in grant funding, with the matching portion coming from offsite levy reserves and the 1990 operating surplus.

Later in the meeting, Council passed a motion agreeing to purchase the land in the AMHC Land Banking agreements, subject to the availability of the financing required for the balance of the purchase price.

Council also gave all three readings to Bylaw 513 / 90, adopting the assessment roll.

Bantam Tournament Winners

Elk Point Bantam Elks swept Bonnyville Bantams 9-2 in the A Side final of this weekend's eight team tournament in Elk Point. The final game was made even more interesting by the score clock, which malfunctioned after the first period, leaving fans guessing about time left to play, and sending timekeepers scurrying for stop watches and alarm clocks. More pictures on Page 7.

Town considers granting title

Town Council met again with a delegation from the Pioneer Circle at last Monday's regular meeting, regarding that group's request to obtain the title to the Pioneer Circle Hall and the surrounding lot. Two weeks ago, the Pioneer Circle delegation had requested either title or a long term lease to the property, but have since decided that the title was what they required to go ahead with planning a new

Pioneer Circle going on their own

The Building Fund Committee of the Elk Point Pioneer Circle has announced that, after a number of years of hard work and study, the members of the Pioneer Circle have decided to go ahead with their plans for a new building to house the club's activities.

They are launching a building fund campaign and would appreciate the support of all members and of the community in this ambitious undertaking.

facility. The Pioneer Circle also is asking for forgiveness of taxes on the property, if they are given title.

Mayor Bruce Kleeberger told the delegation, Phyllis Zarowny, John Williams and Sid Holthe, that "a serious decision must be made" on the matter. He told the seniors that the difference between the Pioneer Circle and other groups which received their facilities for the proverbial dollar back in the early 1980s was that the Agricultural Society, Curling Club and Elks Lodge are all community service organizations where membership is available to the general public, and whose buildings are made available to the community, whereas the Pioneer Circle is only open to seniors.

Sid Holthe noted that it is common for a community to offer facilities for seniors and their activities, and added that seniors make up over a quarter of Elk Point's population. Currently 120 of these seniors are Pioneer Circle members and a membership drive to increase this number is currently underway. Only a small percentage of these members are rural residents. Holthe called the present building "deplorable" and predicted that membership will increase substantially when more adequate facilities are available. The Pioneer Circle's Building Committee is looking at a number of options, but have found that they will need to have the title to the property to pursue these. "Whatever we do, we are doing for seniors for the next 40 years."

When questioned if the seniors have ruled out entirely the possibility of being part of the planned Community Services Centre, Holthe said that the Pioneer Circle members are not opposed to the development, but "do not see that as our destiny right now," and have decided on an independent building program.

Council returned to the discussion of the matter later in the meeting, and agreed to respond to the seniors by telling them that the Town is working favorably toward complying with the request. The matter was then referred to the Municipal Planning Commission and the Finance Committee, with the Administration directed to contact other municipal administrations to see how the tax status was decided and how land and funding was acquired for seniors in other communities.

Council heard reports from the Bicentennial Subcommittee, reporting growing enthusiasm for the 1992 celebration, from the Northern Lights Library System, which is hoping for establishment in 1991, and from Community Futures, which has assisted 23 businesses during their first 9 months of operation. Council also heard from the Community Services Building Society, which has interviewed 2 architects and plans to interview 2 more.

The Tourism Action Committee's new representative from Council Adele Mandryk, offered news of that body's operations, including the re-election of Dave Yake as Committee Chairperson, and the election of Billie Milholland as Vice Chairperson. Ms Mandryk asked on behalf of the TAC that Council reinstate the provision of secretarial services for the committee, and this will be done, with Town staff to prepare minutes taken by the group's recording secretary. The TAC sent Council a proposal for the construction of fort-styled gates at the entrance of the municipality, to enhance the community's motto of 'Gateway To The Lakeland.' The gates would be constructed of power poles, and would have sand-blasted carvings of fur trade era figures, and a map showing both today's highways and the trails of former days. Council agreed to this project in principle.

In Our View

Imaginary gifts

There has been a small contest running on CBC Radio, this past few weeks; they ask for a short essay, titled "What I Would Like to Give for Christmas", and this has set my brain cogs twirling.

What would I like to give this Christmas? And to whom?

Afar, I would like to bestow a wave of reason over the bloodthirsty, greedy and otherwise war-oriented throngs of the Middle East; I should like to send them a package of confidence in their own survival, even without the added boost of a stolen oil supply. In one sock I would drop a box of belief that no one 'religion' is superior to any other, and in the other sock I would place a bottle of genuine Acceptance of Equal Worth of the Sexes, distilled over the ages, with directions to use liberally.

Christmas, community style

With almost half of Alberta's population predicting hard times in 1991, and the passing of the GST slung about the country's neck like the Ancient Mariner's albatross, you would think that Christmas would be a gloomy event indeed. But from what Elk Point has seen so far, the spirit of the season is alive and glowing in the majority of local hearts.

The Christmas Extravaganza saw shoppers swarming into the stores, and they carried right on swarming the next day and the whole next week. Perhaps the presents they are buying are not as large or expensive as those from previous years, but the thought of pleasing the recipient is still there.

The entertainment and activities of that evening were enjoyed by all, in true community fashion, as have been the other events which have taken place since. The Community Choir had a huge crowd for their excellent concert, and many went away humming a Christmas song. The parties of the Elks and OORP, Heritage Lodge and Pioneer Circle have all been enjoyed by the adults, the Lioness Pancake Breakfast and the Elks and Lions Christmas Party delighted the children. This weekend saw both the Baptist and United Churches host their Sunday School Concerts, blessing the season with the ancient story of love.

This week started off with the hugely successful United Church Choir's Cantata, and will continue with the school concerts, the high school breakfast, the light judging...all the events we have grown to expect and enjoy over the years.

The trees are up, the lights are glistening, the carols ring loud and clear. Christmas has spread its blessing on us all...in spite of whatever may come. Let us enjoy what we have, and pray for more of the same in our future.

Across the Gulf, I would like to give the commanders of the armed forces waiting there, a huge bundle of patience, and a strong lock for their 'trigger fingers', to prevent any accidental or premature popping off. I would also like to give them a sack of assurances that their loved ones are well, and missing them, while they're away.

In other lands, torn by (un)civil war, where people starve, are devoid of hope or opportunity to better their lot, I would love to deliver a lethal dose of common sense to their leaders, a large gulp of fresh air and a sack of magic potion that would dissolve all their armaments into fertilizer, along with an irresistible urge to go out and sprinkle it on the land, so crops would grow food to nurture those poor hungry souls.

All over the world, I would give a gift to the forests, that their tree barks would grow so brittle they would deflect the axes and saws poised to needlessly hack them down. To the roadside flowers and plants, I would offer a magic spell, which would turn the killing sprays to fertilizers, enhancing their growth, and perhaps, preserving some of the rare species now so close to extinction.

To all those persons all over the world, who are suffering diseases presently incurable, I would like to give each a heart full of hope, and at the same time I would give to all the scientists and other wise persons an overwhelming desire to 'get to work' on these illnesses and diseases, looking for cures and preventions, to the exclusion of all else, (i.e., the creation of bombs, poison gases, 'stealth' machines, atomic weapons, etc.) until they had found cures and preventions and treatments enough to allow these presently hopeless persons to carry on, and lead normal lives for as long as healthy persons may.

Probably another of my gifts, which might not be a welcome one, would be the destruction, elimination and memory, of tobacco, alcohol and all mind-distorting substances now rampant in the world, thus cutting down on health hazards, destruction of personal relationships and the loss of countless youngsters to the horrors of street life (or should that be death?). I know this wouldn't be popular, but remember, this is MY gift list.

To those youngsters contemplating running away from home, to a life 'on the streets', I would offer a large package of common sense, at the same time gently easing their stupidity out of their minds, and urge them to seek help from doctors, teachers, police, relatives or friends; and to the parents, who are so uncaring of their offspring, I might say, look to your own, or get help. This IS your responsibility.

So why do we give Christmas gifts, anyway? Will your first answer be, to honor the Christ Child, and his arrival? Not so, say many old and learned writings. Gifts were exchanged long before the arrival of the Little Lord Jesus, asleep on the hay.

Alberta Trails

By Irene Magnusson

Many countries and cultures, that had never heard of the arrival of the Saviour until centuries after the fact, were gift-exchangers. They gave for many reasons, not always because they loved the person the gift was offered to. Some gave for expected return favors; some to prove what "good guys" they were, even to giving away their livelihood, or their kids, or their wives. Some gave to appease ferocious 'gods', or forces of nature, such as those who 'gave' virgins to the volcanoes, in hopes of getting off easy.

To be a truly acceptable gift, the offering should be made with no thought of a 'return' gift, no request for favors, no strings attached. It should be purely an expression of love and caring toward the giftee.

A gift need not always be a practical item, or even useful, but it should always be a thoughtful gift, showing consideration for what the receiver might like or enjoy. This doesn't mean that you can't offer a pair of shoes, if the receiver has no shoes; obviously, in that case, you have thought of what would be suitable. Gifts should be offered with love and caring, the only sentiments that make them acceptable.

So...closer to home: To all my friends and neighbors, I offer my very best wishes for the holidays and for the coming year. I cannot 'give' you the ability to see the beauty around us, or to enjoy the gentle snowfall, or the chickadees, or the flaming skies of morn or eve, or the laughter of your children. I can only give you my hope that you will receive all that you wish for.

The Gift Of Nature

We are entrusted with one of the most wonderful gifts of all—our country's wildlife. Remember the birds this Christmas. They, like this pine grosbeak who visited my yard last week, would enjoy a Christmas treat.

New Books:

It may be winter but now is the time to sit back and study the book titled "RADIO CONTROL MODEL AIRPLANES" by John Carroll. In this book learn to fly model airplanes by reading the flight instructions from the basics through advanced aerobatics.

How about "THE KAYAKING BOOK" written by Kayak champion Eric Evans? Learn about this sport for next summer.

"THE SAVORY WAY" by Deborah Madison represents the most complete and delicious introduction to a new kind of cooking.

"WEAPONS" from 5000 B.C. to 2000 A.D. by the Diagram Group. In this book from flint axes to nuclear missiles and sling shots to biological warfare, Weapons is the most comprehensive international encyclopedia of weaponry published since World War II.

In "THE DAY THE UNIVERSE CHANGED", the author James Burke argues that knowledge is a man-made artifact and that when Man's views of reality are changed by knowledge, reality itself changes. Armed with this provocative theory, he charts a course from the Middle Ages to today.

"DEER IN THEIR WORLD". Here are some of the most spectacular photos of deer ever taken by the renowned photographer James Bauer. Also a widely respected outdoors writer, Bauer provides a compelling text on deer, their behaviors and their role in the wild.

"ORIGINS" by Richard E. Leakey. In this book new discoveries reveal the start of our species and possible future.

Thoughts on the AWP and crops

Irene Magnusson

Elk Point

Grain elevators don't talk, and what could they say if they were able to? "I'm here, I'm hungry for your grain. Fill me,"? No. They say nothing, just stand and wait. Yet they are such an important part of our farm community, here in the Elk Point area, as in all of the western grain growing provinces. I thought I could check out what was happening over at the Alberta Wheat Pool elevator.

There is a new manager there, since my last visit. Jack Skulski, from the St. Eduard area, commutes daily to Elk Point. He took office in January of 1990. Doreen Youngmans, of Elk Point, is still Office Assistant.

Grain coming in, so far this fall, is mostly wheat, quotas slow to open. The average grade is about 50 percent #2, 50 percent #3, Skulski says, farmers reporting yields of wheat to be lower than average. Price paid for No. 2 wheat just now is $ 2.94 per bushel; yes, they do work it out to bushels, after all the fuss and feathers over metric measures. I still think a farmer would know, a whole lot better, what he had if it were called "40 bushels per acre" than if it is 1.32496 tonnes per acre...no, we don't use hectares in Alberta. Yet.

Barley and canola yields were average, estimates Mr. Skulski; rye crops are scanty in this area, used mostly for feed or pasture. Oats is still grown, and will bring an initial payment of 90 cents per bushel this fall.

After all the stories we've heard and read about the bumper crops in Alberta, 1990, we must accept that these bumper yields were elsewhere, mostly west and south of here. My son, at Fairview, did say he'd had a very good crop of canola, and for once was able to get it off in good shape. So many times they experience fall flooding from heavy rains, making harvesting a nightmare.

Mr. Skulski was not able to give me a rainfall measurement for the Elk Point area. I do keep a record, of sorts, as I have an old 'government' rain gauge, and write down the measurements of the rain as it occurs. I also melt the snow, and measure the moisture content, too. That is possibly less accurate, since some could blow away.

My annual totals for the past three years are: 1988, 14.82 inches; 1989, 13.66 inches; and 1990 (to Nov. 27), 12.84 inches. If we but take the "growing" months of April, May, June, July, August and September, it would be like this: 1988, 12.83 inches; 1989, 11.66 inches; and 1990, 10.46 inches.

Plainly, the "very good rainfall" we hear about in the news was not for the whole of Alberta. I am sure the Edmonton, Calgary and vicinity areas were well-saturated.

Wouldn't those grain prices about equal those received, back when a loaf of bread was about 25 cents?

I had thought, through the summer, that the Pool might be going to build a large log appendix, but no, that pile of skinned logs belongs to Alberta Power, and are mostly gone now.

CBC Radio today interviewed the first woman delegate to their Annual Convention, being held in Calgary. First woman delegate, in 1990? What's been keeping you, ladies?

The Elk Point AWPool elevator is visible for a long way; I see it whenever I go to town, from far south across the river, from the cemetery when I go to visit my family. It is a building, and an institution, of great importance to the farming community around Elk Point.

124 Days to a Stronger Agricultural Industry

OVER THE PAST 124 DAYS, ALBERTA POOL HAS MADE SOME TOUGH BUSINESS DECISIONS. IN MANY WAYS, THEY'VE BEEN SOME OF THE TOUGHEST OUR ORGANIZATION HAS EVER FACED. WE'VE TIGHTENED OUR BELTS, ROLLED UP OUR SHIRT SLEEVES AND WE'RE TAKING STEPS TO STRENGTHEN OUR ORGANIZATION FOR THE LONG HAUL — FOR OUR MEMBERS AND FOR OUR INDUSTRY AS A WHOLE.

■ Like our farmer-members, we've tightened the purse strings. We've taken significant steps to reduce staff and operating costs, without compromising the quality service we provide.

■ We're introducing a series of innovative marketing options at the elevator to improve producer returns. XCAN and North Country Oats are being challenged to secure new international markets for our customers' grain, oilseeds and special crops. As the export marketing arm for the Pools, XCAN is the largest Canadian exporter of canola, malting barley, flax, oats and terminal by-products.

■ We're introducing new shipping and handling alternatives that are more efficient and cost-effective to Alberta Pool and our customers. You'll be hearing and seeing a lot about two prime examples. The Graintainer is a new grain transportation container system for moving feed grain from the farm to feed markets in British Columbia. The Compton Loader is a portable grain loader that elevates grain at a speed of four to six tonnes per minute.

■ We're placing greater emphasis on food processing as a method of adding new crops and new marketing alternatives for our customers. The benefits the Bow Island Bean Plant provides to bean growers, Alberta Pool and southern Alberta, is encouraging us to pursue similar opportunities for more commodities in other areas of the province.

In 1990, about 20,000 acres of beans were contracted. Since the Bean Plant opened, there have been sales to 50 countries around the world. Alberta Pool has also cracked the large U.S. malt barley market. In 1990 over 45,000 acres of malt barley were contracted for U.S. maltsters.

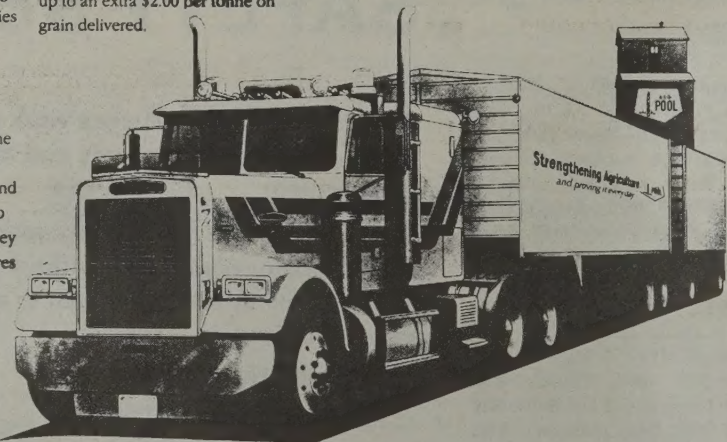

■ Through strong leadership, we're helping develop domestic and international policies that enhance the position of our agricultural producers. GATT, cash advances, Safety Net Programs, Crop Insurance and grain transportation are only a few of the issues Pool policy addresses for the benefit of its producer members.

■ We're focusing attention on lowering farm production costs. Ultrabred is leading the field in seed technology. Recently we registered three new canola varieties and have an extensive line of crops and varieties in our research system. Westco continues to lead the field in fertilizer technology, and we're further refining our strong marketing position in the farm supply business.

■ We're developing unique marketing programs like Value Plus that reward customers with up to an extra $2.00 per tonne on grain delivered.

■ We're placing greater emphasis on environmental responsibility. Programs like Conservation 2000 are being initiated to help Alberta farmers discover and implement practical soil and water conservation practices.

IN THE PAST FOUR MONTHS, WE'VE TAKEN SOME BOLD STEPS TO REDUCE OUR COSTS, IMPROVE OUR PERFORMANCE, PROVIDE NEW MARKETING OPTIONS, AND STRENGTHEN THE AGRICULTURAL INDUSTRY. AND WE'RE NOT STOPPING. PROGRESS MUST CONTINUE. THESE ARE CHALLENGING TIMES, BUT THROUGH LEADERSHIP, INNOVATION AND HARD WORK, WE'RE STRENGTHENING AGRICULTURE AND PROVING IT EVERY DAY.

Oilettes Mini Mart

Elk Point Oilettes hosted a well attended Mini Mart on Saturday, December 8. The Empress Banquet Room was filled with lovely gift ideas of all kinds, from the cute stuffed cats and decorated baskets offered by Sonia Yarmuch, to Aloette cosmetics offered by Desiree Maas, to luxurious lingerie, jewelery, sportswear, Avon and other items. Connie Capijack (left) took a few minutes out of her busy Saturday to check out the displays.

December

Obituary

With whisper and rustle and start and hush,
The dry leaves murmur on tree and bush.
On somber pines, with boughs bent
low,
Forsaken nests are piled with snow.
The chickadees, alert for seeds,
Chatter and cling to the swaying weeds.
The snow drifts deep in the country
ways,
And short and cold are the cheerless days.
Yet, fair on the brow of the frozen night,
The Christmas stars shine, large and bright!

Basketballers Have More Fun

Senior high basketball

Tracy-Lynne Maclellan
Manager

Once again our women of power proved to one and all that we are truly distinct and deserve to be highly esteemed. On Friday, December 7, F.G. Miller hosted two games against Glendon. After our guys' team showed supremacy to the Glendon team by beating them 55-46, the girls fought it out to the bitter end with a winning score of 43-39 in two minutes of overtime. Our top scorers were Barb Naber, Tanya Kenyon, and Tammy Bergstrom. We have an aggressive team that never gives up the chance to fight for the ball, even if it usually ends up being a jump ball. Dianne deMoissac and Cindy Smith are two of the girls who refuse to let go of that ball! Shannon Capjack showed that taking possession of the ball may even result in knocking over another player. Excelling in rebounds were Tammy Bergstrom and Barb Naber. Our superior teamwork and the skill of each player carried us through to victory. If you haven't already been approached by the ever-aggressive Ray Danyluk, or one of other members of the Senior High basketball teams, chances are you will be in the near future. We are selling tickets from the Elks for draws that will take place in the new year to raise money for such things as new uniforms, the cost of referees, and transportation costs. We would really appreciate it if you could support us this way. The tickets are three for $ 5.00, a small price to pay for a worthy cause.

Congratulations to both teams for the incredible skill and talent they demonstrated on Friday night.

Thank you to all who came out to watch us, and for cheering us on to victory. We really appreciate your support and hope to see you here for all our home games.

FGM Boys Basketball Team

In Memoriam

In loving memory of BILL SMEREKA, who passed away Dec. 14, 1989.

One year ago today
On a cold winter day
You were taken from our lives
Falling tears turned to ice.
But warm thoughts of your smile
Remind us for a while
Of the love and peace
the tears and grief
the jokes and laughter
Hey Chief, you shall live in our hearts forever after.
Gone but not forgotten - miss you!

Loving wife Virginia, children
Eugene and Diane and families.

Verse written by Granddaughter Nicole

THE ELK POINT & DISTRICT AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY

“Annual Report” For the Year Ending August 31, 1990

The 1990 Zone II Champions, Value Drug Mart Silver Medalists “Bantam Elks”

Provincial Medalists (l-r): Tobey Conrad, Elisabeth Ludlage, Shauna Loughran.

Charlene Baker
Ag. Committee Chairman

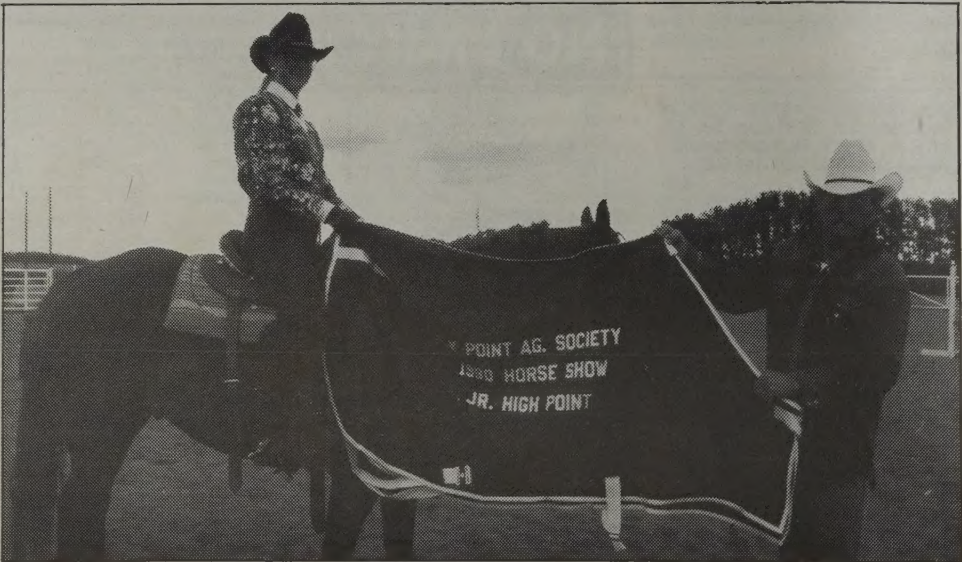

The 1989-90 year for the Elk Point Agricultural Society's Agricultural Subcommittee was a very busy and rewarding one. In the fall of 1989, preparation was made to purchase land north of the Pan Canadian building. At this time, the Town stepped in and offered the land north of the Hilltop Restaurant and Lounge, as a possible alternative at a very reduced rate. Through the next few months, and preceding negotiations, the Agricultural Subcommittee turned down the Town's offer, due to residents' strong concerns over the fairground location. The Subcommittee then went ahead and purchased the 15 acres originally agreed upon from Mr. Larry Babcock, with the option to buy 15 acres more in the future.

Agricultural Subcommittee

In April 1990, Mr. John Drobot presented the Subcommittee with a Lottery Fund cheque for $40,000 for the building of our Fairgrounds. As soon as weather and ground conditions allowed, work was tendered out to local contractors and work commenced on the earth moving and construction of our outdoor rodeo grounds. By August, the rails and fence were up, with a lot of community effort and volunteers, ready for our annual Horse Show. Our Horse Show has grown every year, and this year was no exception, pulling in people from all over Alberta and bringing in a high level of competition. This year the Horse Show was an approved CEF / AEF Heritage Bluesky Classic Circuit show. This circuit was designed for local area horse shows to award points to high point earners in each class, similar to what the breed shows do. At the end of 1991 the high point earners across Alberta will be invited to compete at the provincial level, with the winners becoming Alberta's delegates to compete against delegates from all the western provinces in Brandon, Manitoba.

In January, the Subcommittee is hosting a meeting with Jim Thornton of the AEF spokesman on the Bluesky circuit and all the local area horse show committees, hoping to get a number of circuit shows organized in northeast Alberta. The Subcommittee also helped at the Canada Day Beerfest, and sponsored Kathy Stone as a Rodeo Queen contestant for the Lakeland Finals Rodeo on Labor Day weekend. We were very proud of Kathy and her accomplishments, and plan to sponsor a Rodeo Queen contestant annually at the LRA Finals. The upcoming year will include more finishing work on the Fairgrounds, and acquiring the additional 15 acres needed for a track, or possibly starting the building of an indoor riding arena.

Tanya Kenyon, winner of the junior high point at the Elk Point Ag. Society Horse Show. Other high point winners were: Charlene Baker (Senior) and Pamela Veer (Pee Wee).

Fair Board

Verona Lea Flanders
Fair Committee Chairperson

The 1990 Agricultural Society Fair was held on August 10 and 11 and once again, it proved to be an excellent show! There were slightly more exhibitors and entries than last year, and the quality of the exhibits was up to the same high standard we have seen in previous years.

On behalf of the Fair Committee, I would like to thank all those who contributed to the Fair. If you are interested in becoming involved with next year's Fair, please call me at 724-2269. The 1991 Fair dates have been set for August 9 and 10. We hope to see everyone there!

Happy Holiday to all our friends

Agricultural Fair section aggregate winners worked hard for this array of trophy ribbons.

President's Report

Glen Harms
President

It's with great pride that I present the 1990 annual report to our community. As can be seen, the Elk Point and District Agricultural Society has been and continues to be very active. One of our biggest ongoing expenses is the upkeep of the A.G. Ross Arena. It's a continual process of renewal, especially now that the building is approaching its 20th year of operation. With the purchase of a new Zamboni ice surfacing machine, total rebuilding of the ice plant, reshingling of the roof and multiple small repairs and improvements, the facility is now capable of serving our community for the next 10 years with no major funding required.

The Society's Agricultural Fairground project got off to a great start with the purchase of property from Larry Babcock and the subsequent construction of a show and rodeo ring. This project was probably 30 or 40 years late in completing, but obviously better now than never. It's a great addition to our community and fits well with the society's desire to move closer to our farming roots with an emphasis on farm fairs, equine shows, auctions and rodeos.

As we move into the 90's, look for our Agricultural Society to play a major role in supporting agricultural exhibitions and developments in our community. As well, the Elk Point and District Agricultural Society will be looking very closely at environmental issues that will affect our agricultural community in any way.

Currently (as of publishing date), we are totally debt-free, and that's amazing when you view the variety of activities undertaken this past year and the incredible costs to undertake these projects.

In order for this to happen, we have to have dedicated volunteers who give freely of their time and knowledge. To each of these volunteers and to our entire community - thank you!!!

Treasurer's Report

Thomas Kondla
Treasurer

This annual report is the most honest and forthright way of presenting our report for the fiscal year ending 1990 that I or any of the committee could conceive. It's all here for your review and if you do have a question on any of the reports, do not hesitate to contact me at your convenience.

As a closing note, I would also like to add that for your current fiscal year, we have moved to an entirely different and far more effective method of accounting and bookkeeping.

This makes us even more accountable to you, our members, and to the public at large.

Recycle that tree

Some tips for putting your Christmas tree to good ecological use, rather than dumping it after the holidays, are suggested by the Elk Point Lioness Club.

Wrap your live tree root ball in burlap, which keeps it moist and cool, than plant it either right after Christmas, or in the spring.

If your tree is freshly cut, chop up the branches and trunk and use for the fireplace and / or as garden mulch.

Clip tips and needles and use as sachet stuffing.

Consider buying an artificial tree, which will last indefinitely and requires no fertilizers, no irrigation water, no chopping down and no transportation.

Christmas Joy To All

With special thanks for your patronage and good will, we wish you a very happy holiday and all the best in the New Year.

Countdown to Christmas

Just one week to go! The excitement is growing, and the last minute tasks mount up for these final few days before Christmas. Most of the groups and organizations have already held their pre-Christmas functions, but there are still a few festive events coming up this week.

School Concerts

Elk Point Elementary School will hold their ECS to Grade 3 concert this afternoon, and their Grade 4 to 6 concert on Thursday, December 20, for the enjoyment of proud parents, grandparents and families.

Christmas Storytime

Elk Point Public Library will hold their special Christmas Story Time on Friday, December 21 at 10:30 a.m. Preschoolers and their parents won't want to miss this one!

Christmas Light Judging

The Elk Point Chamber of Commerce will be judging their annual Lighting and Decorating Contest on the evening of Friday, December 21, so be sure to turn on your lights! You could win a prize!

Dreaming of a green Christmas

This year, make yours a "green" Christmas. Give up some of those old environmentally unfriendly customs such as store-bought wrapping paper, and, instead, try a greener approach for the holidays.

Here are a few ideas from Barbara Wallace of the Ontario Environment Network.

★ Wrap gifts in reusable gift sacks. Or use scrap wallpaper, comics or fabric remnants for wrapping.

★ Make gift tags by cutting up old greeting cards.

★ Save gift boxes for next year's gift giving.

★ Phone greetings or thank-yous rather than send them by mail. If you must use paper products choose recycled paper.

★ Turn on outside Christmas lights only when it's dark, and tree lights only while people are in the room.

★ Walk, don't drive, to your place of worship or when visiting friends or family living close by.

★ Defrost holiday foods in the refrigerator rather than in the microwave. (This will help keep the refrigerator temperature cold, reducing the amount of energy required to run it, as well as save on the energy otherwise expended by the microwave.)

★ Close the warm-air duct in the kitchen if you're cooking or baking, allowing the furnace to direct heat elsewhere.

★ Juice up the recharger for battery-operated toys. Rechargeable batteries are more "friendly" than nonrechargeables.

WISHING YOU

Peace, Health & Happiness

AND THROUGHOUT THE NEW YEAR!

Blues keep on trucking

Pat Vincent

Minor Hockey

The Byers Transport Blues extended their undefeated string to five games when they turned back St. Paul (1) in Hiway 28 East Novice Division minor hockey league play December 12 in the CAP arena in St. Paul.

The Blues, who have not done anything the easy way this season, did not depart from that format in their Saturday league game.

Tinker, tailor, candlestick maker could have been easily replaced with forward, defense and goaltender, and appropriately fitted the Blues character in this game. With a few new wrinkles and different faces in different positions, the Blues not only showed they have heart and character, but they also have bench strength.

Some of the lineup changes were necessitated by adjustments to compensate for players who were unable to attend the game. As a result Ryan Petersen got the nod to start in goal, Tyler Vincent took up a position on the blue line and the forward lines of past games were juggled in an attempt to spread around the scoring punch.

The Blues knew the opposition would be more than equal to the occasion, having played to an exciting last minute six-all draw the last time they met in league play.

The Blues grabbed an early lead when, with the game not more than three minutes old, Brett Kopeck jammed home the puck for the first Blues score. Darcy Stafford was in on the play with an assist. Another seventeen minutes of intense play passed before another score was registered, but not for want of numerous excellent scoring opportunities on both sides which the teams were unable to capitalize on. Brent Kossey tied the score at one a side, pulling St. Paul even in the game. A minute and a half later Ben Matthews gained back the lead for the Blues, receiving a pass from his big brother Nathan.

The Blues further increased their lead in the second period to 3-1 when Nathan Matthews, on an end-to-end rush, blasted a howitzer past the defenceless St. Paul netminder. St. Paul, much to their credit and as was expected, did not lay down and roll over. Two goals three minutes apart in the middle of the period drew them even once again with the Blues. Scott Ennis and Jamie Morrow were the marksmen for the home side.

In the last minute of play the Blues Ben Matthews got credited with his second goal of the game to put the visitors ahead 4-3 after two periods of play. Brett Kopeck and Joshua Kutryk were in on the play, being given assists for their efforts.

After the second period intermission, the Blues, with some further lineup changes which saw Tyler Vincent moved to the forward position, relying on only three defensemen for the third period, made the coaches look like NHL material. Tyler Vincent, on a centering pass from the corner, had the puck trickle into the net, off the goaltender's stick, to record his first goal of the season, upping the Blues lead 5-3. Brett Kopeck assisted on the goal. St. Paul (1) wasted no time in replying with a goal of their own when Daniel Romanko scored 43 seconds later, narrowing the gap to 5-4.

The Blues pressured the home team throughout much of the third period. Off a face-off to the right of the St. Paul (1) goaltender, Brett Kopeck won the draw. The puck went to Chris Watson, who in turn relayed it to Tyler Vincent. A backhand shot high over the right shoulder of a startled goaltender increased the Blues lead to 6-4.

A minute and ten seconds later Brett Kopeck got his second goal of the game, an assist from Tyler Vincent and Spencer Easthope, to pad the Blues lead now 7-4.

With just over five minutes to play St. Paul (1) closed out the game scoring when Romanko got his second of the game. The Blues ran out the clock with the help of too many men on the ice, penalty assessed St. Paul (1) with two minutes of play remaining, winning by a final score of 7-5.

The last time these two teams met, between them they scored the same number of goals, twelve. However, this time the outcome was a whole lot different, and happily so for the Blues.

The Blues remain atop the Novice Division standings with an unbeaten record of four wins and one tie.

Capitols winning streak intact

Pat Vincent
Minor Hockey

After five weeks and five games of the 1990-91 minor hockey season, the Elk Point IDA Capitols top the atom division standings with a perfect 5-0 record.

The latest victims of the Capitols scoring machine was the St. Paul B atom team, when the two teams tangled in league action at Elk Point December 1.

The Capitols appear to be sentenced to a season of minor annoyances and setbacks off the ice. Last week it was the forgotten equipment for the first road trip. This week it was conflicting team colours with the visitors. Being the home team, the Capitols donned the Pee Wee teams orange and black team sweaters, and really stood out. In more than one day.

Perhaps it was an omen of things to come, as the Pee Wees had just completed their league game drubbing Bonnyville 15-2. The same sweaters, and a very similar result.

The Capitols served notice early that they meant business, and would be around often to collect their dues. Three first period goals with a single reply from the visitors staked the Capitols to a 3-1 lead. The scoring statistics reflected a team effort as six players had a hand in the goal production. Matthew Vincent from Neil Kozicky, Conway Roscoe from Ryan Stone, and Ryan Stone from Bradley Pankiw accounted for all the first period scoring. The lone St. Paul goal came off the stick of Adam Charbonneau, on an unassisted effort.

The second period was a carbon copy of the first in the scoring department, with the Capitols doubling their lead to 6-2. However, the Capitols had to weather a flurry of minor penalties during the period, including a two-man shorthanded situation, which was followed by a third, delayed penalty. The Capitols not only weathered the storm, but scored while playing a man shorthanded.

Leading the Capitols' attack in the period were Ferlin Quinney with two unassisted goals, and Bradley Pankiw, with his first goal of the season, the assist being from Ryan Stone. The St. Paul scoring was by Krystian Ference, unassisted.

After the mandatory second period scrap and flood of the rink surface, the Capitols demonstrated why they are the undefeated in league play. Scoring early, and then scoring often, the Capitols cruised to an impressive 11-3 victory over the opposition.

Conway Roscoe scored just 38 seconds into the period on a solo rush up the ice. He completed a hat trick effort later in the period on another similarly styled play. Tyson Hawryluk counted his first goal of the season on a shot from the right point with Brad Pankiw assisting on the play. Matthew Vincent slammed home his second goal of the game on a one-time off the face off, when Ferlin Quinney got the draw cleanly over to Vincent. Then Quinney completed his hat trick performance on a perfect set up from Conway Roscoe, who had drawn the defense and goaltender over to the left side of the ice, leaving an unattended and inviting target for Ferlin to easily complete the play.

The final St. Paul goal, and his second of the game, was scored by Adam Charbonneau, unassisted.

The Capitols took one more penalty than did the visitors, of the nine minor penalties handed out in the game by officials Mark Woytkiw and Monty Kenyon.

The Capitols' coaching staff was well pleased with the way their team played Saturday. The crisp passing and the hustle the players showed on the ice reflected in the way they dominated the game, translating to the 11-3 romp over St. Paul B. Especially worthy of comment was the unselfish manner in which one player would pass the puck in setting up a teammate for a scoring opportunity. The players demonstrated hockey maturity beyond their years, a direct result of skills and philosophy which the players are being taught at practice.

Christmas coming to Heinsburg

Heinsburg Community School reports that they are gearing up for Christmas, with their annual Christmas Dinner, prepared by the school staff for the students, scheduled for Friday, December 21. School buses will pick up the students one hour later than usual that day, and will leave the school for home at 12:00 noon.

A successful Volleyball season is now over, and thanks go out to all the coaches, parents of players, bus drivers, fans, volunteers, supervisors and teachers who assisted with the program this term. Your assistance and efforts toward the program were greatly appreciated.

The Prent Teacher Interview Day was very successful, with many parents turning out to learn more about student programs, to observe displays and to give excellent suggestions regarding school programs. Thank you to the parents for making the day a success.

Frog Lake FCSS is to be commended for organizing, promoting and rewarding students involved in the poster and essay program for Drug Awareness Week. The successful project has resulted in increased awareness of the problems that drugs create in our society. We will always remember to "Keep the Circle Strong."

Heinsburg Community Library sponsored children's authors David Poulsen and Sigmund Brauer, for grades one to nine on November 7 and 23. Their presentations were excellent. The Library will be closed for Christmas from December 24 to January 6.

Choir celebrates

The 45-member Elk Point and District Choral Society celebrated the festive season last Wednesday with glorious concert which thrilled the capacity crowd at Elk Point Elementary School. The Bonnyville Society Singers joined the Elk Point group for this very special occasion.

Master of Ceremonies Doug Huskins gave some background information on the history of the choir, which started last February with 33 singers, and has since grown by a dozen talented voices. The choir is open to adults and students of Grade 10 or older, and has singers of all ages, religious denominations and walks of life, who all share a love of singing. The choir was introduced to the local community at a concert last spring, and recently took part in a multi-choir concert in Bonnyville. The choir is conducted by Don Buryn, and ably accompanied on piano by Deanna Easthope.

Elk Point Community Choir started off the evening with four selections, "One Tin Soldier," "Song of the Sea," with soloist Udo Mueller and flautist Laurie Keichinger, "The Water Is Wide" and "What Color Is God's Skin?"

A Ukrainian carol, "Divnaya Novena," was beautifully presented by Don Buryn and Randall Kryz.

Bonnyville Society Singers, a sizeable group which includes former Elk Point resident John Cabaj, offered five numbers: "Take Up The Song," which is their theme song, "It's Beginning To Look A Lot Like Christmas," "The Christmas Song," "Still, Still, Still," and "Old Kentucky Babe," the latter two sung unaccompanied in barbershop style harmony.

Debbie Lou Huskins favored the audience with an exquisite piano solo, "What Child Is This?"

One of the all time favorite carols, "Stille Nacht" (Silent Night) which originated in Germany, was sung in its original language by Mathilda Furger, Debbie Lawrence, Udo Mueller, Albert Naber and Harry Peters, with a guitar accompaniment.

The entire Elk Point Community Choir then returned for their final five selections, this time all having a Christmas theme: "The Little Drummer Boy," "Slow Rockin' Christmas," "This Peaceful Night," "Silver Bells" and an old French Carol, "Ding Dong! Merrily On High!"

Don Conrad offered the Choral Society's Christmas wishes to the crowd, with an adaptation of a poem, "What Shall We Wish You For Christmas?"

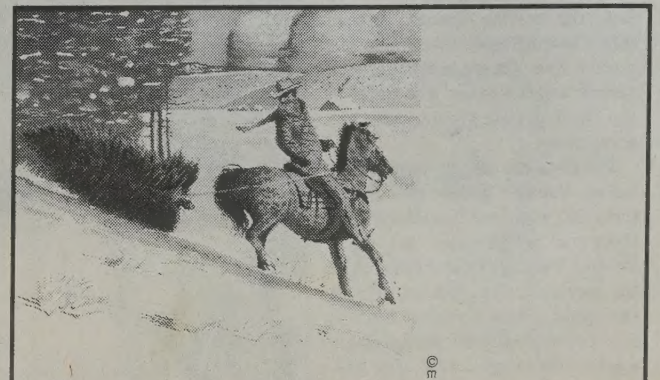

Piano Soloist

Debbie Lou Huskins entertained with her piano solo, "What Child Is This?"

Bonnyville Society Singers

Special guests at the Elk Point Choral Society concert were these fine singers from Bonnyville, who added their talents to the hour and a half program.

Capitols shut out Bonnyville

Pat Vincent
Minor Hockey

There's something to be said for a road game. I can guarantee there were many somethings silently said about the 7:30 a.m. road game to Bonnyville on December 8 for the Elk Point IDA Capitols atom hockey team.

In a game totally dominated by the Capitols, the Bonnyville goaltender was the first chapter of a very interesting story as it unfolded. Keeping the Capitols from scoring is an achievement. And keeping them from scoring during the entire first twenty minutes of play he did. It certainly wasn't due to a lack of trying on the part of Capitol players, as they were thwarted on several good scoring chances.

The scoreless draw was broken early in the second period, on a patented Conway Roscoe, end to end rush. And, as if by signal, the puck began finding its way into the net with increasing frequency. In fact, the scoring drought turned into a scoring feast as the Capitols scored five times in the second period, and a further five times in the third period winning this one going away.

The Capitols scoring parade was led by Conway Roscoe and Ferlin Quinney, who each registered the three-goal performance hat trick. Bradley Pankiw, having now found the scoring range, chipped in with two goals, while Matthew Vincent and Tyson Hawryluk added single markers to round out the ten goal deluge.

The Capitols' dominating performance was highlighted by extremely sharp passing and timely use of the defensemen for an offensive attack spurred by the shot from the rearwards. A particularly pretty passing play ended the scoring on the game, with Ferlin Quinney registering his hat trick with only 28 seconds left in the game. Roscoe and Quinney broke in on a two on one, Roscoe drew the defenseman and goalie to his side of the ice. Dumping the puck out in front of the net to his teammate, Ferlin Quinney, Roscoe unselfishly set up Quinney for the hat trick as he drove the puck into the middle of a wide open, undefended net.

Passing of this nature was characteristic of the Capitols play throughout the game, though not all ended with scoring opportunities, or plays as pretty as this one.

The 10-0 shutout by the Capitols was the first game this season the opposition has been prevented from scoring a goal. And a shutout in minor hockey is the equivalent of you or I winning the 6/49. It just doesn't happen. Not all that often, at least. Sharing the glory of the shutout honours were goaltenders Darren Watson and David Naber. Watson carried the load for two and a quarter periods of play. Naber was given some playing time seeing action in the last fifteen minutes of the match.

The game was also an occasion for the Capitols to call upon three players from their minor affiliate Byers Blues novice team. With two players on the Capitols roster unable to make the road trip, and needing the additional skaters, Nathan and Ben Matthews and Tyler Vincent were suited up for the game. The playing experience proved to be valuable for all three layers, who did not in the least look out of place with the older, bigger and faster atom players.

The game, which was incorporated in a two day, eight team atom hockey tournament, was the sixth consecutive league victory for the Capitols. And, with twelve points in the standing, lead the nine atom teams in the Hiway 28 East Minor Hockey League.

A sea of perogies

Elk Point

The many mothers of the young folks who make up the Elk Point and District Ukrainian Dance Club had labored long, with the result that the perogy and cabbage roll table was groaning under its load. The occasion was the annual Sale and Tea fundraiser of this local dance group.

Other items are offered for sale, but the famous Ukrainian foods are the chief drawing cards. Several days are spent preparing these delicious morsels, involving mothers, babas, and the use of the Home Ec. room over at the F.G. Miller High School.

Some sixty would-be dancers are enrolled, from tiny-tot four-year-olds, to adults. These terpsichoreans gather in the old FCSS building, every Tuesday evening, where they are directed by dance teachers Ken Rylance and Debbie Kachmar.

Some of the most active supporters of the group are Loris Kozina, Iris Brown, Lorraine Danyluk, Lesia Porcina, Diana Frankiw and Hilda Naber. And, of course, many others.

Following the Sale and Tea, the draws were made, with winners being: Anne Buck, iced cake; Orest Sereda, wall hanging; Travis Brown, garlic jar; Kathy Kozina, horse ornament; Lena Stepa, Christmas glasses; and Mrs. Warren, the Santa bear. The 'crew' hopes all enjoy their winnings, and the Tea, which they have labelled 'quite successful'.

I'm sure you will all join me in wishing this enterprising group, who have brought so much joyful entertainment to Elk Point, and valuable training and culture expansion to the young people involved, all the very best.

Ukrainian Dance Club's Loyal Supporters

Lesia Porcina points the way to the scrumptious baked goods and Ukrainian foods awaiting shoppers at the Ukrainian Dance Club Tea, while Lorraine Danyluk, Iris Brown and Loris Kozina stand ready to wrap purchases from the laden tables.

Christmas greetings

Pastor Jim MacLellan

Elk Point Baptist Church

Merry Christmas! As I enter my third year in Elk Point I still maintain, as I did upon my arrival, "We live in the best community in Alberta". In a time of great decline, Elk Point citizens have shown the fortitude of character that founded this community so many years ago.

It was not a great metropolis that God chose to reveal His Son, 2000 years ago. It was a common place; with common people; in a common setting. The message that rings down through the ages is "God is a personal God!"

It was not a famous citizen that God chose to use as the mother of Jesus. She was an unknown by human standards. Simple in appearance ... stunning in inner beauty! The message still resounds, "God cares about you as a person!"

It was not with great fanfare that God sent the Saviour of the World. He was in the form of a child, eternally perpetuating simplicity and humility.

The Incarnation that brought a personal God to people just like you and I, can be repeated this Christmas! The Gospel still has the power to transform lives by God living with mankind.

My prayer for you this Christmas, is that the miracle of the first Christmas may be repeated in your life. Have a Blessed Christmas and a Happy New Year!

The Children's Creche

The children of Elk Point United Church Sunday School portrayed the Holy family, angels, shepherds and wise men at Sunday's special service.

United Church
christmas
pageant

The old, old story of the First Christmas was again retold this past Sunday at Elk Point United Church, with a glorious Son born to a humble couple in a stable, regally garbed wise men and shepherds with their flocks coming to see the new arrival, and a multitude of angels singing His praise. Diana Anderson read the words of scripture as the ancient tale unfolded, with the children of the Sunday School portraying the people of Biblical times.

Favorite carols were sung by the children, by Diana Anderson and Diane Frankiw and by the congregation as part of the presentation.

A reading by Irene Miller and a powerful solo, "Do You See What I See?" by special guest Danny Quinn of St. Paul rounded out the Christmas part of the program.

The service ended with the baptism of two tiny new members of the congregation, Dierdre, daughter of Sheila and Richard Nelson, and James, son of Trudy and Doug Sparks.
